Aim of the game: To throw your stick through the hoop and accumulate the most points

Set up: Choose a child as the game leader and give him the hoop. All other players stand shoulder to shoulder in a straight line holding their sticks. The leader stands about 15 meters (50 feet) in front of the group but on the side.

Rules:

- The players get ready to throw their sticks. On the word "Go" the leader rolls the hoop in front of the players. The players then try to throw their sticks through the rolling hoop.
- The players that are successful in throwing their stick through the hoop receive one point.
- When players end the game, the winner is the player with the most points.
